The Ritz-Carlton, Fort Lauderdale | Meals: D

Days 2-4: Colombia | Colonial Grace

Set off on your private jet for Cartagena, Colombia, a bastion of well-preserved colonial architecture. Wander the streets of the Badillo neighborhood and gather in a city square for dinner and a folkloric dance performance. Experience local life up close at a “street market” displayed exclusively for you and sample Colombian coffees. Day 5: Easter Island | The Lost World

Fly nearly 3,000 miles over the Pacific to one of the most remote — and enticing — destinations on earth: Easter Island. The island’s iconic stone effigies, called moai by the Rapa Nui, are thought to be representations of the builders’ ancestors. There are nearly 900 moai spread throughout the island; almost all of them face inland, in order to watch over and protect the island’s living inhabitants. The grandeur of these figures is rivaled by the island’s intense natural beauty, with a postcard-worthy view seemingly in every direction. Arrive to a greeting of flowers and warm smiles from your Rapa Nui hosts, followed by a sunset cocktail atop Ranu Kau, a spectacular dormant volcano. Following dinner, enjoy a performance by local native dance troupe Kari-Kari. If this is your first visit to Easter Island, you may rise early the next day to hike along “the way of the moai,” a chance to view many of Easter Island’s famous figures up close, before flying to your next destination.

Days 6-9: French Polynesia | Unspoiled Islands

Fly by private jet to Papeete and then board a local charter flight to Rangiroa, the quintessential South Pacific paradise. Rangiroa is the authentic Polynesia, a serene place where many still make their living from fishing or pearl farming. Spend several days savoring the sunny, uniquely relaxed atmosphere of Rangiroa through a variety of activities, which you may pick and choose to your liking. Drift through an atoll of clear blue water to watch schools of brilliant tropical fish and darting reef sharks swim past; visit a pearl farm to learn how these treasures are harvested and purchase a unique souvenir; or simply relax on a lovely stretch of beach. Divers can don a wetsuit and tank for a dive in Tiputa and Avatoru, two of the country’s finest dive spots. Take a day excursion to the Blue Lagoon to watch local spear fishermen at work, and enjoy a fresh lunch on the beach. Rejoin your private jet crew and depart for your next destination.

Day 10: Solomon Islands | Tropical Traditions

Arrive by private jet at Honiara, the capital city of the Solomon Islands, and experience a lively welcome of flower garlands presented with a company of ceremonial warriors. Embark the next day for a visit to a village that opens a window onto life as a Solomon Islander. Witness demonstrations of many traditional island skills, including hot-stone cooking, coconut husking, sagopalm house building and natural medicines. The highlight of your visit is a bride-price ceremony arranged exclusively for you. This custom is still carried out using traditional shell money (tafuluae) offered by the groom’s family; shell money is also used to purchase local staples such as food, canoes and even homes. End your visit with a lavish feast of stone-roasted motu (pig), fish and cassava pudding. Native dancers perform for you, and invite you to join them in an exuberant celebration. Return to your private jet for the flight to the Philippines.

*Cross the International Dateline en route to the Solomon Islands.

Celebrate your arrival in Cebu, the Philippines, during a beachfront Playa del Fuego cocktail reception and dinner. The next morning, set out for Tagbilaran City, Bohol. Visit the Philippine Tarsier Sanctuary at Corella for a chance to see one of the world's smallest, and rarest, primates in its natural habitat. Continue to the Chocolate Hills, a region famous for its undulating topography — here you have the opportunity to interact with local children as they perform local songs and dances. Enjoy a private performance by the renowned Loboc children's choir. Spend the next day enjoying your choice of activity. Swim with whale sharks and observe these magnificent (and quite harmless) creatures up close, enjoy a leisurely 18 holes at a nearby golf course or take your pick from the many activities offered by your resort. On your last evening here, take part in a local cultural feast featuring an array of traditional Filipino food and lively entertainment.

Shangri-La's Mactan Resort & Spa | Meals: B L D

Days 14-16: Mongolia | Land of Nomads

Your private jet today brings you to Mongolia, where families of nomads still roam the plains on horseback as their ancestors did centuries ago. Board a local charter flight for the Gobi Desert, which lies between the Siberian wilderness to the north and the Tibetan Plateau to the south, and features Bactrian camels, mountain sheep, golden eagles and many endemic reptiles. At your comfortable ger camp, the night sky is awe-inspiring and an astronomer is on hand to lead an evening of stargazing. During your stay, attend a special presentation of the Naadam Games, traditional contests of archery, wrestling and horsemanship that speak to Mongolia's deep military history. Also visit the Flaming Cliffs with a local paleontologist and learn about the extraordinary dinosaur finds (including the first dinosaur eggs) made in this area.

Days 17-19: Uzbekistan | Legacy of Tamerlane

Arrive to a rousing welcome in Samarkand, Uzbekistan, this one featuring musicians and local children in native dress offering flowers. The next day, set out to explore this incredible city, once the home of Tamerlane the Great, the warlord and scholar who led an army that swept westward as far as Cairo, Egypt. Visit the mausoleum where Tamerlane is interred, and at lunch, learn to make one of the region's signature dishes: rice pilaf. See the street acrobats at the local caravansary and visit local factories to see mulberry paper and silk carpets being made. Learn calligraphy from a local artist and take in a private musical performance. In Registan Square, gather for an open-air gala complete with your own private bazaar. Enjoy a folk dancing demonstration, musicians, fire jugglers and even a private fashion show.

Days 20-22: Russia | City of the Tsar

Fly north to St. Petersburg, the city shaped by one of Russia's enduring visionaries, Peter the Great. Experience "the Venice of the North" as its namesake intended with a private cruise along its canals. The next morning, meet with Mikhail Gorbachev's personal interpreter for a talk on Russia's current political situation, and then visit the Church on Spilled Blood, a superb example of Russian architecture and decorative art. After lunch on the grounds of the Peter and Paul Fortress, choose a tour of the Fortress, a visit to a ballet school or tea with a Russian artist in his apartment. In the evening, tour the Hermitage Museum during an exclusive, after-hours private opening, followed by a classical music concert. Days 23-26: Iceland | Midnight Sun

Leave St. Petersburg behind for Iceland's scenic and charming capital, Reykjavík. Gather tonight for a special dinner of Icelandic delicacies at your hotel. The next day, head to Thingvellir where the Vikings established the first Parliament. Today, Thingvellir is a national park, a natural wonder and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Explore the Geyser area's geothermal pools and see an eruption at Strokkur, which occurs every five minutes. The next day, choose one of these options: Take a four-wheel-drive tour of Iceland's most scenic areas, including lush and rugged Thorsmork with its low birch trees and surrounding mountains, glaciers and rivers; fly by helicopter to the enormous, dormant Thrihnukagigur volcano, which is large enough to house the Statue of Liberty and into which you descend; or take a dip in the aptly named Blue Lagoon, a spring-fed pool of mineral-rich blue water popular with bathers. At night, gather with fellow guests for a farewell dinner in an award-winning restaurant. The next day, travel to the airport to fly to New York and connect with your homebound flight.

RESPONSIBILITY

A&K is the charter operator and, except as expressly provided in this Agreement, is responsible to the passenger for contracting for all services and accommodations offered in connection with the Tour.

However, in the absence of negligence of A&K, we are not responsible for personal injury, property damage or other loss caused by (a) any air carrier, hotel or other supplier of any of the services being offered in connection with the Tour, or by (b) delays, or defects in or failures of any aircraft, vessel, automotive vehicle, or other means of transportation or supplier that is not under its direct control.

The price of the full Tour is $129,000 per person, double occupancy, with an additional $16,500 charge for a single room (subject to availability). Tour prices include charter flight, all applicable taxes and the additional services as described in the Around the World by Private Jet: The Tropics to the Arctic brochure. Prices reflected in this contract are based on current taxes and jet fuel costs. Rises in cost of tax and/or fuel could necessitate a supplemental charge. Any tips or gratuities not specifically mentioned as included in the total charter price will be at your discretion. Except for "major changes," as described below, no refund will be made for any accommodations or services included in the charter price which you voluntarily do not use.

RESERVATIONS AND PAYMENT

If the Tour is fully booked when your reservation is received, your payment will be returned within 7 days, or with your authorization, we can retain the deposit and place your name on a waiting list in case other passengers cancel their reservations. Even if you authorize us to put your name on a waiting list, we will notify you within 7 days that your selected flight is fully booked.

All checks and money orders must be made payable to our depository bank, "Shelby Financial Corporation - Abercrombie & Kent USA, LLC, Escrow Account," or to your travel agent, who in turn must make a check payable to "Shelby Financial Corporation - Abercrombie & Kent USA, LLC, Escrow Account."

The balance of the insurance premium must be paid at the time of the second deposit. Insurance premiums and refunds are subject to the policies of the insurance carrier.

On or after January 2, 2017	100% of the program price

If you cancel and provide a substitute participant for this trip, you will receive a full refund of money paid toward the charter price less an administrative charge of $25 within 14 days after the substitute has paid in full. The costs for visas, commercial air tickets, and pre-tour or post-tour independent arrangements may not be refundable. If you paid for the Tour by credit card, you may cancel and receive a full refund any time until you have signed an Operator Participant Contract. Such refund will be made within 14 days of cancellation.

The passenger shall have the right to cancel and receive a full refund if A&K makes any of the following "major changes" in the Tour prior to departure:

- (a) A change in the departure or return date, unless the change results from a flight delay required by the Air Carrier that does not exceed forty-eight (48) hours, and of which A&K received less than two (2) days' notice.
- (b) A change in the origin or destination city, unless the change affects only the order in which cities are visited.
- (c) A substitution of any hotel of lesser quality that is not named in this contract.
- (d) A price increase of more than 10 percent (10%).

Notice of any "major change" described in this paragraph will be given within seven (7) days of learning of the change, but at least ten (10) days prior to the scheduled departure date. Provided, however, that if A&K first learns of a major change within ten (10) days of the scheduled departure date, it will notify the passenger as soon as possible. Within seven (7) days after receiving notification of a major change, but in no event later than departure, you may cancel your reservation and you will receive a full refund within fourteen (14) days. If a major change occurs after the departure of the flight which you are unwilling to accept, A&K will refund, within fourteen (14) days after the return date named in this agreement, that portion of your payment which applies to any services not provided.

A&K reserves the right to cancel the Tour at any time for any reason whatsoever, in its sole and unreviewable discretion. Provided, however, that A&K shall have no right to cancel the Tour less than ten (10) days before the scheduled departure except due to circumstances that make it physically impossible for it to operate the Tour. If a charter is cancelled 10 or more days before the schedule departure, A&K will notify you in writing within 7 days after the cancellation, but in any event, at least 10 days before the scheduled departure. If cancellation within 10 days of the departure date is required because it is physically impossible to operate the Tour, A&K will notify the passenger as soon as possible.

The passenger's acceptance of any refund offered under this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of any additional remedies.

A&K and the Air Carrier each assume no responsibility and shall not be held liable for Acts of God, fire, flood, fog, smog, weather, mechanical failures, acts of government or other civil or military authorities, wars, civil disturbances, riots, terrorist acts, crimes, strikes, shortages of aviation fuel, epidemics, quarantines, hazards incident to sea, land and air travel, or any other similar occurrence that is beyond its reasonable ability to control.
