GREAT BRITAIN

Chapter One

Rich history, bucolic beauty, renowned landmarks and cosmopolitan cities make this a land of infinite variety

GREEN AND PLEASANT LAND

From grand castles, stately homes and natural wonders to famous city landmarks, discover the highlights of Great Britain

Few countries can match the variety of Great Britain's attractions. Its rich history stretches through its kings and queens to the Industrial Revolution, the British Empire and the cosmopolitan nation it is today. It leads the world in art, music and culture, as well as boasting renowned landmarks, museums, festivals and sporting events.

Embrace the philosophy of slow travel; unhurried, relaxed with time to appreciate the rich tapestry of the country. Viaducts that stretch across valleys, tunnels that carve through hillsides and train tracks that hug the coast epitomise all that is special about travel by rail. Alight and explore three of the countries that make up the Kingdom. Enjoy the lowlands and highlands of Scotland. Step back in time with a visit to Edinburgh Castle, uncover the history of the Royal Yacht Britannia or cross the water to the tranquillity of the Isle of Arran. Cross back over the border to Berwick and follow in the footsteps of Monks on the Holy Island of Lindisfarne alive with flora and fauna. Further along the coast proudly sits Alnwick Castle - visit the lavish Italianate Staterooms, relax in the beautiful gardens or dine in one of the world's largest treehouses.

Heading West, traverse the wilds of Northumberland, journey over the Pennines - the backbone of England. Here you can sail on Lake Windermere, enjoy a birds of prey display or enjoy a brief encounter at Carnforth.

Travel onwards to Chester, the walled Roman City and kick start the Festive season at the Christmas Markets. Across the border a warm Welsh welcome awaits. Conwy Castle, Bodnant Gardens and the Victorian splendour of Llandudno are some of our destinations.

Whatever you choose to do there is no finer way to enjoy this green and pleasant land than aboard the vintage carriages of the Northern Belle.

ON BOARD

Chapter Two

It is the warmth and dedication of the on board team that makes our journeys an extra special adventure.

HANDCRAFTED SPLENDOUR, THE MARQUE OF LUXURY

Luxuriously adorned carriages, gastronomic gems, fun excursions and a welcoming ambience ensure an unforgettable experience

From the hand painted exterior to the opulent interiors, created by a local designer using handmade fabrics, no detail on the Northern Belle has been overlooked. The veneered marquetry interiors have been inspired by the great British castles and stately homes after which the carriages are named - Alnwick, Belvoir, Chatsworth, Warwick, Glamis, Harlech and Duart.

Essex based A Dunn & Son originally created, and then restored the famed marquetry on the British Pullman train. It's designs for the Northern Belle still employ traditional methods dating back to the early 1700's.

Complementing the beautiful interiors is excellent cuisine featuring seasonal delicacies that are skilfully woven into classic and innovative dishes by our Executive Head Chef and his team.

The best local produce is sourced along the route, including succulent meats from remote Welsh farms, apple juice from Cheshire orchards and a cheeseboard full of delicious varieties that spans the entire width of the carriage isle.

We know how important it is to take time out from our day to day lives to spend with those closest to us, so why not bring all the generations of the family together and spoil your loved ones with one of our luxurious day trips or short breaks? Bring together all the generations of the family for an extraordinary day out and create memories to last a lifetime.

Larger parties can make a group reservation and enjoy exclusive use of the whole train or an entire carriage. This is an ideal way to host parties or corporate events.
